

InStyle

The 10 Most Instagram-Worthy Pools in America

January 10, 2018
Dobrina Zhekova

If you live on the East Coast, you're not only battling some likely post-holiday gloominess right now but a winter "bomb" cyclone as well. Let's face it, we have all seen better times and so could use some distraction from the snowpocalypse happening outside our windows. What better way to beat the January blues than browsing through some actual blue-colored pools that will have you dreaming of (and maybe even booking) a warm-weather getaway?

Scroll through the most unique, relaxing, and picture-perfect pools that make for great spots to soak up the sun, sip cocktails, and rack up likes on Instagram, #nofilter needed. The best thing about our list? All of these gorgeous destinations are in the country, which makes getting there easier, cheaper, and faster.

1. ALOHILANI RESORT WAIKIKI BEACH, HAWAII

Honolulu's new modern resort may have that perfect beach-front location, but we'd gladly skip the sand to enjoy the beach view from the resort's stunning saltwater infinity pool.