Activity Descriptions

Queen's Legacy Tour: Learn about the life and legacy of our Beloved Queen Lili'uokalani. Get an in-depth look into Hawaiian history and find out why our hotel pays special homage to Hawai'i's last reigning monarch. Please inquire with one of our cultural ambassadors to schedule a private tour.

Beginners Hula: Join us for an introductory class to hula! This is Hawai'i's cultural dance that will connect you to a special part of our Hawaiian culture. You will learn a few basic steps and a song that will teach you a little about Hawai'i! Let's hula!

Ti Leaf Lei Making: Learn the many uses of the Ti Leaf, a common plant grown in abundance throughout Hawai'i that holds a lot of significance in the Hawaiian culture. This class will teach you a traditional braiding style of lei making using only natural materials.

Flower Lei Making: In honor of our Queen Lili'uokalani and her love of flowers, we offer you the experience to create your very own beautiful flower lei. Whether you make it for yourself or as a gift, come and handcraft a lei using one of the more modern styles of lei making.

Feather Hair Pick Making: One of Hawai'i's most royal regalia was the Hawaiian Featherwork and Hawai'i's unique techniques. In this activity you will be able to experience the detailed thoughts and skills that go into making what was once a symbol of royalty or high nobility.

Fish Feeding: View our in house diver hand feed the marine life in the oceanarium.

Video Art Projection Series: Created by local artist Joseph Pa'ahana, come and enjoy his video artwork highlighting the beautiful landscapes of Hawaii. You can watch the lights light up the surface of our Beachside tower while listening to our local DJs poolside at Swell.

Monkeypod Kids Club (Additional fees apply): Travelling to Oahu with kids? Even our youngest guests can experience new adventures while having fun and making friends. Children ages 5-12 can participate in hands-on, indoor & outdoor activities that. Tours, activities & lunch options are available for an additional fee.
